THOMAS PRINCE BEAL, Class Secretary.

TO THE CLASS.

In the following report I have endeavored to collect such statistics as would interest you, and such as have been gathered by my predecessors.

I have to thank the whole class for their kind answers to my constant and often annoying questions, and especially Mr. H. M. Howe, who has kindly furnished the boating statistics, and Mr. N. S. Smith, who has furnished those of base ball.

I would again call your attention to the necessity of writing to the Secretary at least once a year, in order that he may be able to keep a record of the members of the class.

Members are also reminded that one-fifth of their subscription to the Class Fund is now due, and one-fifth on each of the succeeding four commencements.

My address is 104 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. All class notices will be published in the "Advocate," "Boston Advertiser," "Journal," and "Transcript."

Hoping that we may always maintain an affection for our class, and that I may have to record a long and prosperous career for each, I remain your sincere friend and classmate,

THO'S P. BEAL.

In nine cases the parents were divided in belief. Many of the students have not fully decided on their religious views; and those that say they are undecided are merely waiting until they can more thoroughly examine the subject.

I have not obtained the political views of the class; but judging from the number that joined the torchlight procession in honor of President Grant, they are very strongly republican.

Neither have I attempted to collect any statistics in regard to smoking or drinking, from the impossibility of determining a standard.

COLLEGE SOCIETIES.

The class has been represented in the various college societies as follows: —
